I Michael A. Moseley was working on a car I have just returned from my grandmother's. After she passed away and was working on the brakes proceeded to turn around and out of my headlights way forward in the morning and hit the neighbor's car because they weren't working and pulled the emergency brake but not in time to hit the car. I also hit the back part and some of the wooden bumper also. I went in side to look for a flash light and the other neighbor had just walked out side and together we notified the owner's car.
